

Charleston attorney reappointed to ATG board

cwalker May 5, 2017

Grant

CHARLESTON — James Grant of James Grant Law in Charleston and Casey was reappointed to the board of directors of Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc., for a three-year term that began in January 2017.

"Jim's experience in real estate, title insurance, probate and income tax law is a great asset to the ATG board and members," said ATG President and CEO Peter Birnbaum. "We have been honored to have him on our board for several years and appreciate his service."

On the ATG board, Grant lends his expertise to the audit and claims committees and also serves on the board of directors of ATG subsidiary, ATG LegalServe. He is a member of the Illinois State, Coles-Cumberland and Clark County Bar Associations, as well as the Illinois Township Attorneys Association.

Grant graduated from Eastern Illinois University in Charleston in 1972 with a B.A. in speech and political science, and from St. Louis University School of Law with a J.D. He joined a Charleston law firm in 1976, became a partner in 1979, and launched his own firm in January 1998. He is a resident of Charleston.